Maharashtra Mauj

04 Nights/05 Days (02 Nights Mumbai + 02 Nights Alibaug)

Description

India's third-largest and second-most populous state, Maharashtra is an expansive canvas showcasing many of India's iconic attractions. There are palm-fringed beaches; lofty, cool-green mountains; Unesco World Heritage Sites; and bustling cosmopolitan cities (and gorgeous vineyards in which to escape them). In the far east of the state are some of the nation's most impressive national parks, including Tadoba-Andhari Tiger Reserve.

Inland laid the extraordinary cave temples of Ellora and Ajanta, undoubtedly Maharashtra's greatest monuments, hewn by hand from solid rock. Matheran, a colonial-era hill station served by a toy train, has a certain allure, while pilgrims and inquisitive souls are drawn to cosmopolitan Pune, a city famous for its 'sex guru' and alternative spiritualism.

Westwards, the romantic Konkan Coast, fringing the Arabian Sea, is lined with spectacular, crumbling forts and sandy beaches; some of the best are around pretty Malvan resort, which is fast-becoming one of India's premier diving centers.

Tour Highlights

Mumbai: India is filled with marvelous metropolises, but Mumbai offers something very different in its heady mix of markets, colonial heritage, cultural hot spots, beaches and big city mayhem. Experience the many rhythms of life in Mumbai on strolls past elegant lines of colonial-era buildings and monuments, and glimpse the best of contemporary India at the city's cosmopolitan cafes and convivial beaches.

Alibaug: Alibaug, a small coastal town south of Mumbai, you can explore a plethora of beaches lined with coconut palms, boasting black or white sands, and mostly suitable for swimming and water sports. Change things up with these side-trips from Alibaug: Kihim Beach (in Raigad) and Kashid (Kashid Beach & Korlai Fort). The adventure continues: enjoy the sand and surf at Nagaon Beach, take in the spiritual surroundings of Kanakeshwar Devasthan Temple, and tour the pleasant surroundings at Awas Beach.

Attractions and Shopping Tips

Mumbai: Gateway of India, Juhu Chowpatty, Marine Lines, Bandra Shopping Hub, Dhobi Ghat, Flora Fountain and many more.
