The rich and exotic flora & fauna, historical monuments, fort & palaces, high mountain ranges, thick green forests, and diverse culture of Madhya Pradesh allure tourists from all over the world. Madhya Pradesh was ruled by a number of rulers from different dynasties. Because of the rule of different rulers, today, Madhya Pradesh offers every visitor with different tourist attractions which feature different forms of architectural styles. Madhya Pradesh is most popularly known for housing the famous Kanha National Park and Bandhavgarh National Park which is known for its rich flora and fauna. Also, the state is famous for the Khajuraho Group of Monuments which has been declared as World Heritage Sites by UNESCO. Sanchi and Bhimbetka are other famous attractions of Madhya Pradesh which have been declared as World Heritage Sites by UNESCO. Other popular attractions of the state include Gwalior, Ujjain, Bhopal, Pachmarhi, Orchha and Jabalpur. The star attraction of Madhya Pradesh is the wide variety of cuisines it offers. Popular cuisines offered in the state include Rajasthani and Gujarati cuisines.

Tour Highlights

Pachmarhi: The only hill station in Madhya Pradesh, Pachmarhi is often known as the queen of the Satpura ranges. Situated at an altitude of 1,067 feet, this tourist spot is blessed with myriad attractions like ancient caves and beautiful monuments. Being at an elevated height and surrounded by beautiful forests of the Satpuras, with their streams and waterfalls Pachmarhi gives any tourist a serene and memorable experience. Since Pachmarhi was discovered and developed in the modern times by Captain James Forsyth of the British Army, this city houses charming churches built in colonial style architecture.

Satpura: A beautiful and serene known for boating and the lush green and colorful garden on both sides of it. It is best visited in the morning for walks to enjoy some peaceful time. You can choose to visit Satpura museum which exhibits the lifestyle, culture and history of people of Dang, majority of which are Adivasis.

Bhopal: Bhopal is a town which steps into the future with a rich heritage and vibrant history tracing its footsteps. It is highly ornamented with the majestic mosques which showcase classic Mughal architecture such as the Taj-Ul-Masjid, one of the largest in India, built by the third female ruler Bhopal had, Shah Jahan Begum, Moti Masjid and many more. The city will also catch your attention through its breathtakingly beautiful havelis and museums as well as a picturesque landscapes filled with verdant forests and vibrant hills. Bhopal is also the cultural hub with numerous art performing centers in the city.

Attractions and Shopping Tips

Pachmarhi: Bee falls, Pandava Caves, Dhoopgarh, The Jata Shankar Caves, Mahadeo hill, Handi Khoh, Priyadarshini point.

Shopping in Pachmarhi: It can be a great experience for the visitors. You might not get fancy items to buy, but there are some interesting things made by the tribal people of this region that are worth buying. The local markets display tribal crafts made by the Bastar and Gond tribes. The beautiful and exquisite canopy and bamboo work of the tribal people are commendable. The agricultural tools, baskets, hunting tools can be found in the local weekly markets. The metal artefacts made by the Bastar community of tribes are worth buying from here. Local paintings from Pachmarhi are world renowned and should be added to your shopping list. Pachmarhi is also known for its local honey and herbal ayurvedic medicines. Other items you may buy from here include jute and marble decorative items that make for some great souvenirs.

Satpura: You can spot from hundred of animals such as leopard, sambar, chital, Bhedki, nilgai, four-horned antelope, chinkara, bison (gour), wild boar, wild dog, bear, black buck, fox, porcupine, flying squirrel, mouse deer, Indian Giant squirrel, etc.

Shopping at Satpura: Within the park there is no scope for shopping however, if you are an ardent shopper and like to collect souvenirs from each travel Pachmarhi is the place to head towards. The small town located around 60 kilometers from the reserve showcases different wooden and metal artifacts created by the local tribal. You can also collect beautifully crafted marble and jute decorative items.

Bhopal: The jewel of Bhopal's Islamic cultural heritage is the Taj ul Masjid, the 'crown of mosques', The Jami Masjid and the Moti Masjid, Shamla Hills & many more

Shopping in Bhopal: The Chowk area is the place to head for shopping if you are hunting bargains. The old city streets have fascinating shops to explore, where you can pick up the famous Maheshwari and Chanderi sarees, gold and silver jewellery, hand-embroidered clothes, genuine antiques and bric-a-brac at reasonable prices. Bhopal is famous for its hand embroidery using velvet, gold and silver metal threads and semi precious gemstones. The craftsmen create wonderfully dressy evening bags, stoles and slippers straight out of Arabian Nights. If you prefer not to go into the crowds, try the equally good New Market area, and you'll find the same stuff but minus the atmosphere and at a higher price.
